

MoU signed between Mangalore University and Father Muller Homoeopathic Medical College and Hospital, Derlakatte, Mangalore

An MoU has been signed between Mangalore University and Father Muller Homoeopathic Medical College and Hospital, Derlakatte, Mangalore for research in biomedical sciences. Specifically, it envisages to leverage expertise and infrastructure in basic and applied research in Mangalore University with clinicians of Father Muller Homoeopathic Medical College and Hospital. The MoU foresees collaborative research, joint publications, exchanges of researchers, joint seminars and other areas academic interest. Mangalore University, since its establishment in 1980 has ventured into collaboration with neighbouring and distant institutes of repute, notable here being with the 137-year-old Father Muller Charitable Institutions. The MoU was signed by Dr. Shivaprasad K., Principal, Father Muller Homoeopathic Medical College and Hospital and Prof. A. M. Khan, Registrar Mangalore University, in the presence of the hon'ble Vice-Chancellor (In-charge), Dr. Kishore Kumar C.K. on 4th October 2018. Dr. Kurian P.J., Research Coordinator, Father Muller Homoeopathic Medical College and Hospital and Prof. Monika Sadananda, Mangalore University were present.