

NEWSLETTER

WAVES-2015

31st South Zone Inter University Youth Festival

January, 20, 2016

Colourful cultural events enthrall audience at third day of Youth Festival

Mangalagangothri, Jan 20: Various cultural and fine arts events including folk dance, Skit, Indian and western vocal (Solo), one act play, debate, Cartooning and Poster Making competitions took place on the third day of 31st South Zone Inter University Youth Festival held at Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri.

All the participants from different universities were brimming with energy like never before. Students from 18 Universities participated in folk dances held in Dr. Kayyara Kinjanna Rai Vedic and presented folk dances of different states of Karnataka and other South Indian States. While some troupes gave importance to music, some others to costumes and body movements.

Dr. Vasanth Kiran, a jury of the event thanked Mangalore University for organising these kinds of events. He also advised the participants of folk dance to understand two juries of folk dance.

Skit and one act play was held at Dr. Shivarama Karantha Vedic and a total of 18 teams presented skits on the background of the folk dances they performed. These kinds of cultural festivals help to promote our folk cultures. Dr. Aarthi Shetty and Dr. Rajashree Ullal were the other different issues. Mr. Tyagaraj Ramaswami, Sunetra Pandith, Vidhu Uchil and Neelesh Saare were the juries for the event.

Students performing Banjara Dance

Western and Indian

Light Vocal (Solo) was held at Giribale Vedic. Eighteen students of various universities participated in India Light Vocal (Solo) event.

A debate on “Privatisation of education is the only alternative to promote inclusive education” was held at Panje Mangesha Rao Vedic. A total of 12 teams participated in the event. Eloquence competition was held at the same venue on the topic “Cultural Diversity of India”

Off stage events included Cartooning and Poster making which was held at B. M. Iddinabba Vedic. Seventeen students of different colleges designed posters on the theme “Swatch Bharath” and “Save Life”.

What the Youth say....

Anju, Kannur University: “We got good support from Mangalore University to exhibit our talents in different events. We also got good feedback from the audience for our efforts.”

Arjun, Amruth Vidyapeeta University, Kerala: “I have participated in Light Vocal (Solo) Indian event. It was a good experience. Students of our university participated in many events. We are waiting for the results.”

Ranjitha, Karnataka University, Dharwad: “For me it is a new experience, this kind of youth festivals gives a good opportunities for the students to exhibit their talents.”

Santhosh, Shree Krishnadevaraya University, Bellary: “I am satisfied with my performance in skit. Mangalore University is supporting us in all aspects.”

Communicating through cartoons

Light Vocal Indian music (solo)

Kamsale folk dance

Skit performance

Dollu Kunitha folk dance

Tomorrow's events....

Stage 1 - One Act Play
Stage 2 - Classical Dance
Stage 3 - Classical Instrumental Solo Percussion
Stage 4 - Rangoli
Stage 5 - Clay Modeling, Installation

For more details on Youth Festival Visit www.mangaloreuniversity.ac.in/media and Photo Gallery