

NEWSLETTER

WAVES-2015

31st South Zone Inter University Youth Festival

January. 21, 2016

Students mesmerise audience with dance and music

Mangalagangothri, Jan 21:

Fourth day of 31st South Zone Inter University Youth Festival witnessed seven different events at five venues of Mangalagangothri campus.

Fifteen students from various universities performed classical dance at Dr. Kayyara Kinjanna Rai Vedike. Most of the participants with their colourful costumes performed Bharatanatyam. Vidushi Rajashree Ullal, Vasanth Kiran, and Arathi H Shetty were juries for the event.

Twelve students participated in Classical instrumental (solo) using flute, violin, harmonium and veene. Ustad Ra-feek Khan, B. Jayaram, Rajan Kulkarni were the juries for the event.

One act play held at Dr. Shivarama Karantha Vedike. A total of 14 teams presented acts on various issues.

Dr. Tyagaraj Kumaraswamy, Sunetra Pandith, Viddhu Uchil were the juries for the event.

About 20 students prepared clay models of wrestlers, workers and dancing kids at B. M Iddinabba Vedike. Gopal Kambara, a jury of the event said, "Clay Modelling is an art which requires good concentration and patience." G. Venkatesh Kurulu and Chandra Naidu were the other two juries of the event.

Seventeen students participated in Rangoli competition using rice and color powders in the Humanities block.

What the Youth say.....

Pradeep, Karnataka University : The stage, lighting and sound systems provided by the university was excellent compared to other youth festivals. Youth Festival provides an opportunity to preserve our traditional culture.

Architha, MGM University, Kottayam, : The competition is very tough since all are professionals at the South Zone Youth Festivals.

Aryadatta, Shree Shankaracharya Sanskrit University : The festival is well organised and arrangements are good.

Suhasini Koulagi, University of Mysore: It is my first performance here and I feel happy to be a part of the South Zone Youth Festival.

Suma, University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad: It is good opportunity for the youth to express their talents. I have participated in earlier youth festival, but the competition is tough here.

Rangoli design using rice

One Act Play

Students engrossed in clay modeling

Flute recital

Classical dance solo

Creating artistic expression (Installation) using ordinary/waste materials

Valedictory function

Valedictory programme of the 31st South Zone Inter University Youth Fest will be held at Mangala Auditorium (Stage 1) at 10:00am.

For more details on Youth Festival Visit : www.mangaloreuniversity.ac.in/media and Photo Gallery