

WAVES-2015

31st South Zone Inter University Youth Festival

January. 22, 2016

Waves 2015 : University of Kerala bags South Zone Overall Championship

University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala with their Overall Championship trophy (left), Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, Kerala with their runners up trophy (right). Prof. Arun Patil, Observer, AIU, Prof. K. Byrappa, Vice Chancellor, Prof. T. D. Kemparaju, Registrar, Prof. P.L. Dharma, Convener and Prof. K. M. Lokesh are seen in the picture.

Mangalagangothri, Jan 22 : The University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram bagged the overall championship prize at the 31st South Zone Inter University Youth Fest “Waves -2015” organised by Mangalore University in association with the Association of Indian Universities(AIU) and Ministry of Youth and Sports, New Delhi. The University of Kerala won 14 prizes in different events. Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam emerged as runners up by winning prizes in 10 events.

Among the eight events held under the category of music and eight events under the category of fine arts, University of Kerala secured Championship, while in literary and theatre events Amritha Vishwa Vidyapeetham, Coimbatore won the championship. University of Mysore secured the championship in dance events.

University of Mysore bagged the first prize in cultural procession held as a part of the inaugural ceremony of youth festival. Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kaladi and Mangalore University bagged second and third prizes respectively.

Chief guest Prof. Arun Patil, Observer, AIU in his address said, “This kind of festival gives the best platform for the youth to express their talents.” The 31st Inter University National Youth Festival will be held at University of Mysore during February 15.-19, 2016, he said

He also thanked Mangalore University for successfully conducting the youth festival.

In his presidential address, Prof. K. Byrappa, Vice Chancellor, Mangalore University, said, “Mangalore is known for its cultural richness, diversity and also for hospitality. All the faculty members are worked with great unity for the success of this festival”. He also said that the university is giving seats in its PG admissions to students under culture and sports categories.

Prof. T. D. Kemparaju, Registrar, Mangalore University congratulated winners and all the participants. Prof. P. L. Dharma, Convener welcome the gathering. Prof. K. M. Lokesh, Organising Secretary proposed a vote of thanks.

Prof. Arun Patil, Observer, AIU delivering valedictory address.

Prof. K. Byrappa, Vice Chancellor, Mangalore University delivering presidential address

Packed audience

Students of University of Kerala receiving championship trophies in both Music and Fine arts events seperately

Students of University of Mysore receiving Championship trophy in dance event.

Students of Amrutha Vishwa Vidyapeetham, Coimbatore receiving Championship trophies both in Literary and Theatre events seperately.

For more details on Youth Festival visit :www.mangaloreuniversity.ac.in/media and Photo Galary

Edited and published by the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri, Mangalore, Karnataka